

Baker McKenzie.

Baker McKenzie Seminar Series “Navigating International Project Finance” “A closer look at international power projects”

Date: Monday, 7 October 2019 | Venue: BELLESALLE Onarimon Tower, 4F

Stephen Clugston

Counsel, Projects
Tokyo

+81 3 6271 9528

stephen.clugston@bakermckenzie.com

Stephen is the firm's English and Australian law project / project finance Counsel in the Tokyo office. Stephen helps drive the Tokyo office's outbound international project development and finance initiative with support from his colleagues in Tokyo.

His focus is outbound international projects / project finance. He has worked in Sydney, Tokyo, Amsterdam, and London and has spent time working at a leading international bank focusing on oil & gas project finance and a major Japanese trading house focusing on project development. Stephen has worked extensively on project development and financings in emerging markets in the Middle East, Africa, Central Asia, and Asia Pacific, and South Pacific, with a focus on energy (power/oil and gas) and infrastructure. He has acted extensively for sponsors, borrowers, commercial lenders, ECAs and multilateral finance institutions.

Samir S. Desai

Partner, Projects
Tokyo

+81 3 6271 9459

samir.desai@bakermckenzie.com

Samir is a New York and Washington DC qualified Partner in the Firm's Projects team and foreign registered lawyer in Japan. He has worked in the area of international project finance since 1996. From 1999 to 2005, he worked in the Firm's Washington, DC office advising on electric power transactional and regulatory matters, including a term in the Firm's London office. He represents Japanese companies on the development and financing of natural resources, electric power (conventional and renewable), oil & gas and infrastructure projects globally.

Martin David

Partner, Finance and Projects
Singapore

+ 65 6434 2588

martin.david@bakermckenzie.com

Martin is a projects and infrastructure lawyer with particular experience in projects, project finance, energy M&A, general finance, and international construction. He has over 25 years of experience in Asia acting both for sponsors and lenders (including multilateral agencies) on the full range of infrastructure projects and project financings, with particular strengths in power, telecommunications, petrochemicals and roads. He is a former civil engineer and has market leading experience in relation to greenfield IPPs in Asia, particularly in the renewables sector (wind and geothermal).

Gavin Raftery

Partner, Banking & Finance
Tokyo

+81 3 6271 9454
gavin.raftery@bakermckenzie.com

Gavin Raftery chairs Baker McKenzie's Asia Pacific Banking & Finance Group, and is the Co-head of the Banking & Finance group in our Tokyo office. He is also one of the heads of Baker McKenzie's Global Fintech Initiative. Gavin has extensive experience practicing finance law in Australia, the UK and Japan. He is listed as a leading lawyer for Banking and Finance in Japan by Chambers, Legal500 and IFLR.

Pierre Chiasson

Partner, Banking & Finance
Tokyo

+81 3 6271 9493
pierre.chiasson@bakermckenzie.com

Pierre is a New York law qualified Partner in the firm's Banking & Finance team. Pierre's practice focuses on cross-border renewable energy project finance and he has significant experience representing sponsors, borrowers and international financial institutions on the development and financing of projects, including ECA-backed financings.

Kosuke Suzuki

Partner, Banking & Finance
Tokyo

+81 3 6271 9698
kosuke.suzuki@bakermckenzie.com

Kosuke is a Japanese law qualified Partner in the firm's Banking & Finance team. Kosuke's focuses on both domestic and international project financing, including ECA-backed financings. Kosuke was seconded to SMBC Singapore (project finance group) during 2013 to 2014 and NEXI (power group) during 2016 to 2018.